

When Moses Put God First

January 16, 2021

AUDIO

Putting God first can be difficult. In this video we will explore what we can learn from Moses to help us put God first in our lives today.

Moses tried to save the people through his own power. It didn't work. He was banished from Egypt, and his dreams were dead.

After decades of working as a shepherd in the desert, something strange happened to Moses. God called him to revive the dreams of his youth—to see the people of Israel freed from slavery.

But the thing is: Moses wasn't ready. He could no longer speak properly and believed he was too old to challenge Pharaoh. He was right about that, but God told him: "... 'Who has made man's mouth?... Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say (Exodus 4:10-12).'" God told him the same He is telling us today!

For Moses, putting God first meant refusing to rely on his own ability and strength. It meant putting his whole life in God's hand and accepting the call based on God's power!

Because he had this "not so confident mindset," God would be able to work through him, delivering his entire nation from slavery.

Just like God called Moses, you too are called to put Him first in your life. There is a special mission that can only be achieved if you decide to put God first in your life. It's not easy, but through the Holy Spirit, you can realize that divine strength is found only by trusting God while acknowledging your own weaknesses.
